

UNCLE SAM APPEALS
A $15,000,000 CASESTANFORD STATE LITIGATION
TO BE CARRIED HIGHER

Decision of the Circuit Court in San Francisco Releases a Vast Property and Aids the Great California University—Suit Is Not To Be Dropped.

San Francisco, July 1.—The government will appeal the case against the Stanford estate to the United States court of appeals. In the lower court the government has suffered defeat in its suit to recover $15,000,000 from the estate of the late Leland Stanford. In the United States Circuit Court Saturday, Judge Ross sustained the demurrer of Mrs. Stanford against the suit. In his decision he allowed the Government to amend its former complaint and reargue its case, should it so elect. He intimated, however, that this step would not affect the case, the law, as interpreted by the judge, not favoring the United States. Great surprise was occasioned among attorneys by the decision sustaining the demurrer, as they had anticipated a contrary decision. The effect of this decision will be to release the vast estates, which have been tied up by litigation, and permit Mrs. Stanford to carry out her plans in regard to the Leland Stanford University, which institution has been greatly hampered by a lack of funds.

KILLED BY INDIANS.

Natives of Alaska Massacre a Party of White Traders.

Tacoma, Wash., July 1.—The Kake Indians of Alaska, who massacred several whites during an outbreak in 1893, are again on the warpath, because of the killing of one of their bucks by a Wrangell Indian, who also killed his wife because she eloped with the Kake Indian. The Kakes, while seeking vengeance attended a potlatch, or Indian feast, at Killisnoo, southwest of Wrangell Island, and learned some white men had instigated the killing of their brave. The Kakes raided 10 traders, secured some whisky, became crazy drunk, and set about shooting and killing all the whites in sight, two of whom were killed. The Government officials and the officers of the Pinta have been notified.

he could not survive more than a few hours. Some days ago the great man apparently rallied and the belief was entertained that possibly he might escape the dread results experienced to-day, but his age and the nature of his sickness combined to sap him of vitality until the case had to be regarded as hopeless.

Sailors' Friends Disappointed.

Washington, July 1.—An order has been issued to Admiral Norton, in command of the South Atlantic station, to have his flagship, the Newark, now at Montevideo, docked at Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, there being no dock at Montevideo large enough to admit the Newark. This is a great disappointment to the relatives and friends of those who are aboard the Newark, as it was expected that she would be ordered north when she needed docking and especially as the terms of her men are about to expire. When she was last docked she was sent across the Atlantic to Cape Town, Africa.

Iowa Saloons Close.

Dubuque, Iowa, July 1.—A large proportion of the liquor dealers in the upper forty-nine counties of this state will retire from business. The Chronicle says undoubtedly the Liberal cabinet had intended to appoint Gen. Lord Wolseley, who has a strong claim to this position as an administrator and a reformer. It is believed, however, Lord Salisbury has never forgotten a certain speech of Gen. Lord Wolseley on army reform.

Convention Will Be Lively.

Denver, Col., July 1.—The indications are that the Democratic state convention, to be held in this city Tuesday, July 2, will be a pretty lively gathering. There is little question that resolutions denouncing the financial views of Cleveland and Carlisle will be introduced in the convention. They will be opposed by the older members, who comprise many office-holders, and an attempt will be made to have a resolution straddling the question adopted as the sense of the convention.

Ohio Democrats to Fight.

Cleveland, O., July 1.—The silver Democrats in this city threaten to make a fight in the coming County Convention. William J. Hart, who is recognized as one of the leaders, declares that he will introduce a free-coinage resolution in the County Convention, and if he is defeated there, he will take the matter to the State Convention. Hart counts on the assistance of the other silver Democrats in the contest.

Opposed to Injunction.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 1.—A mass meeting was held yesterday afternoon under the auspices of the Central Labor union to protest against government by injunction. The speakers were John McBride, president of the American Federation of Labor, D. F. Kennedy and J. B. Maynard. McBride quoted from Jefferson to show that the power of the judiciary as now known was foreseen and feared by him and argued that its power had reached a point where it ought to be curbed. The working people of the country must meet and remonstrate and prepare to push a bill through the next Congress for a modification of the injunctive power of the courts. Resolutions were adopted calling upon the workmen to take action expressing sympathy with Debs in the day of his imprisonment without trial by jury.

Pittsburg, July 1.—A disastrous wreck occurred on the Baltimore & Ohio at Laughlin, between a passenger train and a switch engine today. It resulted in the death of a brakeman and the serious injury of the fireman.

Two Firemen Fall to Death.

Worcester, Mass., July 1.—A fire in the rag shop of the Hubeley Manufacturing company in Brackett court early yesterday morning caused the death of two firemen and injured eight others, and caused a financial loss of about $4,000. The dead:

BRIGHAM, W. F., 34, married. BOYLE, LIEUT. J. J., 36, single.

The injured: Avery, Capt. W. N. Atwood, E. C. Bassford, F. H. Casey, John P. Coleman, George S., Deputy Chief Engineer. Chamberlain, C. E. Ham, Henry H. Robinson, R. D.

The victims belonged to Hose No. 4 and Hose No. 9. Hose No. 4 was one of the first pieces of apparatus to reach the fire, and attached it in the top story. Without warning the floor collapsed, carrying the two floors underneath it into the cellar. The men went down with it and were buried under the ruins and bales of rags. Lieut. Boyle's back was broken under the crush of the timbers and Brigham was smothered under the piles of rags. The rest of the men escaped with their lives, but it took the rescuing party three hours to get to them and remove them from the debris.

Mill Burns at Pierport, Mich.

Manistee, Mich., July 1.—Representative Charles W. Perry's saw and grist mill at Pierport, twenty miles north of Manistee, was destroyed by fire Saturday night. Total loss about $100,000; no insurance.

BRITAIN SAYS "NO."

A Question of Great Diplomatic Importance Decided.

Washington, July 1.—It is expected by officials that Great Britain will protest against the concession Venezuela has made to an American company and will warn the Americans against taking possession of the territory, part of which is claimed by Great Britain.

Under similar circumstances the British foreign office protested against the same concession when it was first granted to Americans in 1884, and the warnings at that time were so determined that the latter did not push their concession, which has remained dormant until now Venezuela grants it, and the Americans start to assume possession of the territory. The warning given by Great Britain when the last concession was given to Americans covering the same land was as follows:

"Colonial Office, London, Oct. 21, 1886.—Whereas the boundary line between her majesty's colony of British Guinea and the republic of Venezuela is in dispute; and, whereas, it has come to the knowledge of her majesty's government that grants of land within the territory claimed by her majesty's government have been made or purported to have been made by or in the name of the government of Venezuela, notice is hereby given that no title to land or to any right in or over or affecting such land, will be admitted or recognized by her majesty's government, and any person taking over any such lands under color of any such title or pretended title will be liable to be treated as a trespasser."

This warning was the culmination of a controversy following the grant. There was much contention, but the American company at last abandoned its plans and the concession has remained in abeyance ever since. Now that it is revived, the purpose of Great Britain to protest is believed to be clearly outlined by the action taken ten years ago. It is even thought that the protests of that day remain operative to-day, as they cover the same lands, but it is not doubted that the British authorities will renew the warnings in order to give them more formal application to the present case.

TRAGEDY IN A CHURCH.

Unrequited Love Causes a Young Girl to Commit Suicide.

Richmond, Va., July 1.—While services were proceeding in the Rev. Dr. Moses D. Hodge's church last evening Miss Minnie Wilkinson shot and killed herself in the infant class room adjoining the auditorium. She was 35 years old, and for fourteen years was engaged to marry E. B. Marquess, a nephew of Dr. Hodge. Recently he broke off the engagement, which so distressed her she decided to end her existence. Miss Wilkinson apparently went to church bent on ending her existence. She carried an old-fashioned army pistol. She was the daughter of a well-known auctioneer here. Her brother, who died a few years ago, was a leader in the Y. M. C. A. work throughout the south.

Duke of Aumale Is Alive.

EX-PRESIDENT PEIXOTO DEAD.
The Man Who Crushed Out the Attempted
Royalist Revolution.

Rio de Janeiro, July 1.—Ex-President Peixoto is dead. The republic of Brazil has lost one of its strongest friends and stoutest champions. But for his unconquerable zeal and the moral support of the United States the monarchists under De Mello and Da Gama, aided by an English fleet and the financial aid of England, Portugal and Spain, might have triumphed in 1892-1893 and restored to the throne the prince who still pretends to the scepter by Dom Pedro. It is a singular coincidence that Da Gama, the aristocratic leader of the revolution at its close, and Peixoto, the pebbler patriot, should die within a week, the former by his own hand in exile.

OUTLAWS BATTLE WITH POLICE

Desperate Fight at Oklahoma City—Prisoners Break Jail and Fire on Officers.

Oklahoma City, O. T., July 1.—As the result of a jail delivery at this point at 6 o'clock last evening two persons are dead and several wounded more or less severely.

When Jailer Garver entered the corridor of the jail at the usual time to lock the prisoners in their cells, Robert Christian, Vic Casey and William Christian made a savage onslaught on him with weapons which they had managed to secure. He was struck a terrible blow over the right eye and knocked senseless.

The prisoners dashed over his body and made their escape, scattering the people on the crowded streets and keeping at bay their pursuers with a rapid discharge of revolvers, which in some manner they obtained.

Vic Casey jumped into a passing vehicle containing a man and a woman, and at the point of a pistol compelled them to jump out. Almost before they had time to obey his command, Chief of Police Jones opened fire on the escaping prisoner, who promptly returned the fire. A perfect fusillade then took place between Christian and Casey and several officers.

Casey and Officer Jones were instantly killed and another man was shot through the leg and a woman was slightly wounded by a spent bullet.

One of the Christian brothers then mounted the dead officer's horse, while the other compelled a citizen to get out of his buggy, and then drove furiously out into the country, closely pursued by a posse of infuriated citizens.

Bloodhounds were brought into requisition, and there is but little doubt that the fugitives will be captured soon. Should they be caught, a double lynching party will surely follow.

Vic Casey was 19 years old. He killed Deputy Marshal Sam Ferris at Yukon, O. T., last summer. He would have been released on bond to-day. Robert and Will Christian were noted thugs and desperadoes, and were confined on the charge of killing Deputy Marshal Turner, of Tecumseh, O. T., several months ago.

EPWORTH'S LAST MEETING.

Ten Thousand Persons Assemble to Hear Bishop Joyce.

Chattanooga, Tenn., July 1.—Yesterday it rained in torrents, but little thing like a deluge cannot dampen the ardor of a Methodist, especially such religious Methodists as have been making Chattanooga their place of shouting and singing for the last few days. Every pulpit in the city of every denomination was filled by some eminent Methodist divine. Each church was crowded. While the morning was stormy the skies cleared at noon and the afternoon was delightful, but no pleasure of the slightest worldliness was indulged in, not even pleasure trips to contiguous places of interest.

It was prayer, song and sermon all day long. When the delegates had had their noonday meal they went at once to the churches again, where platform meetings were held until supper time, and when supper was over they assembled at the big tent, where at 7:30 the closing meetings of the conference began, which continued until the small hours of the morning, being in the nature of a love feast and watch meeting. The crowd was tremendous. After the regular 10,000 had been seated 5,000 were turned away. Bishop Joyce preached the closing sermon. His subject was "The Overcoming Power of Jesus Christ."

Fight at a Festival.

Jeffersonville, Ind., July 1.—During a festival Saturday night at the residence of Samuel May of Marysville, ten miles east of here, three young men became engaged in a quarrel and Theodore Taylor received three stabs in the body from a dirk knife. One of them was in the vicinity of the heart and will result fatally. The attending physicians say he cannot survive twenty-four hours. The other two participants were seriously, but not fatally, injured. No arrests have yet been made.

May Not Prosecute Bolin.

Omaha, Neb., July 1.—There is much discussion in Omaha as to whether or not defaulting Treasurer Henry Bolin shall be prosecuted. The record shows that at least $25,000 of city funds were missing when Bolin was deposed. As this was made good by the bondsmen and the city lost nothing, some were for letting Bolin escape further prosecution.

SUNDAY GUN FIGHT
NEAR EAU CLAIRE

RIFLES USED TO EVICT UNWELCOME TENANTS.

RUSSIA MASSING TROOPS IN ASIA

Large Army Ready to Descend on Japan—Prison Congress.

Tacoma, Wash., July 1.—The Norwegian steamer Oscar II., which arrived yesterday, from Vladivostok, Siberia, brings news that the indications are good for another Oriental war. Capt. Sanderson of the steamer says Russia has massed 80,000 men at Vladivostok, and it is believed in Siberia preparations are being made for an advance on Japan. The massing of these ships and troops at Vladivostok has been secretly done by Russia, unusual precautions having been taken to prevent the spread of any intelligence regarding the actual force it has quartered there. What Russia's designs are cannot of course be told, and they are purely conjectural, but it is clear if it builds a railway line south from Vladivostok to the Yellow Sea the intention is to obtain an open port and hold it at all hazards.

International Prison Congress.

Paris, July 1.—President Faure opened the International Prison Congress yesterday in the great amphitheater of the new Sorbonne. Two hundred delegates are present from twenty-five countries, including the United States. Sig. Lombroso, a celebrated Italian criminologist, is among the delegates. There was a banquet at night of 2,000 covers at the Hotel Continental in honor of the delegates.

They also alleged they are British subjects, and say they have received assurance from Great Britain they will be supported in their claim of a right of residence in Hawaii.

Party of Americans Drowned.

Mazatlan, Mex., July 1.—A party of four Americans, among them being Howard Trevins, a wealthy manufacturer of California, were drowned off the coast, sixty miles north of here, two days ago. They were making a pleasure cruise in a sailing vessel, when it capsized.

DEATH IN THE RIVER FOR A YOUNG ACTOR

MAURICE BRADBURY DROWNED
SATURDAY EVENING.

Tried To Jump From the Steamer Mayflower Into a Small Boat Alongside, But Capsized It, and Did Not Come to the Surface—Body Found and Shipped to His Home.

In but eight feet of water and with help close at hand, Maurice Bradbury, aged 23, a member of the "Maloney's Wedding" Company, was drowned at Mayflower Park Saturday evening. He sank from sight when his row boat was overturned and did not reappear so nothing could be done to rescue him. Half an hour later the body was recovered and brought to the city, all efforts to bring the young man to life having been futile. The body was shipped to Chicago at 12:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the drowned man having made his home with his mother who lived at 131 South Peoria street.

The accident was a peculiar one. Bradbury had been down town nearly all day Saturday and left for Mayflower park, where the company was in camp, on the 6 o'clock boat. He laughed and chatted with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McCabe, Mrs. McCabe, being his sister, and the party seemed to be enjoying the ride very much. As the steamer reached the dock and Captain Griffiths gave the engineer the signal to shut off steam, Bradbury got up; walked to the rail, and loosed the painter of a row boat which had been towed alongside the steamer.

Death Came Quickly. As the propeller ceased to revolve, and when the steamer was about fifty feet from shore, Bradbury jumped from the steamer into the boat. He did not land squarely in the center of the small craft and in an instant he was floundering in the water, the steamer and row boat both being out of his reach. People on the boat heard the splash and looked about. They saw Bradbury struggling in the water, and paddling toward midstream, he apparently being so confused that he did not know which way he was going. The cool headed captain retained his senses, and while the others wrung their hands, he called to Bradbury to paddle toward the shore. An instant later, boats were shooting toward the drowning man, impelled by vigorous oar strokes, but strange to say, Bradbury did not come to the surface.

Farriage Tried To Find Him. Washington Barriage, who is an expert swimmer, was soon at the spot where Bradbury sank from sight. Thinking that the body was probably resting on the river bed, and knowing that prompt action might yet save Bradbury's life, Barriage began to dive, and although he searched the vicinity thoroughly in that manner, his efforts did not meet with success. Then a systematic search was begun and parties began to drag the river. Fifteen minutes later David Moyer, who was a guest of J. L. McCabe, caught the body with a fish hook.

"I've got him," he called excitedly, but as he pulled, the light line parted under the strain and the body again sank. Moyer continued to drag at that point and soon afterwards caught the body again. This time the fishhook caught in the dead man's coat sleeve and the body was carefully raised to the surface. Willing hands grasped the water soaked clothing and the boat was rowed swiftly to the shore.

Could Not Be Revived. "Hurry up," called Captain Griffith "perhaps we can resuscitate him" and as soon as possible the captain and Mr. and Mrs. Brooks were at work on the lifeless form. For an hour they tried all known means, but could not awaken the spark of life, and were finally forced to abandon the attempt. The body was then carried aboard the Mayflower and the boat run down to the city, as soon as possible when the remains turned over to Undertaker Frank D. Kimball to be prepared for burial. The noon train on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul road took the casket to Chicago yesterday in charge of Mr. and Mrs. McCabe.

Bradbury had been a member of the McCabe Company for the past three years, Mr. McCabe having been a part owner of the "Summer Bazaar" company, and was very popular with the other members of the company. Besides his mother, and sister Mrs. McCabe, Bradbury leaves two brothers, both of whom reside in Chicago. Mrs. McCabe had joined the company but two days ago and was nearly prostrated with grief at her brother's untimely demise.

The members of the company were on their summer vacation. They came to Janesville some time ago and played "Maloney's Wedding," incidentally, at the Myers' Grand. After finishing their engagement, and liking Janesville, they decided to spend the heated term here. Taking a fancy to Dr. William Horne's residence on Park street, they called at his home.

"Can we rent this house for the summer?" Mr. McCabe enquired. "We are very fond of fishing and boating, and would like to be near the river," "I told them," said the doctor last night, "that my house was not for rent, but suggested to them that they go to one of the up-river resorts, where they could camp out. This suggestion seemed to please them, especially the ladies, and they clapped their hands for joy. They at once made arrangements to go into camp at Mayflower Park, and seemed to be enjoying their summer outing immensely. I never saw a lot of people who seemed to enjoy each other's society so much."

SMALL HOUSE DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Cornelius O'Leary Was Burned Out at 2:10 O'clock This Morning.

A little frame house owned and occupied by Cornelius O'Leary, at the corner of Palm and Galena streets, was totally destroyed by fire at 2:10 o'clock this morning. An alarm was turned in from box 54, the fire department answering the call promptly, but the building was wrapped in flames when they arrived. Considerable of the furniture was removed and the loss will not exceed four hundred dollars, the house being very small and old. The alarm gave the department a run of one and a half miles. The building was insured for $200 with Carter & Hasleton's agency.

There was an incipient fire this morning in the wooden awning in front of the board of trade in the Williams block, which was extinguished with two pails of water without turning in an alarm. C. H. Keuck's meat market sign was slightly charred and smoked.

Had Real Experience.

A New York undertaker, or funeral director, as the reader may prefer, advertised for a driver for a hearse, and among the applicants he selected a good-looking, strong fellow, with a solemn countenance, and took him into his private office.

"Before employing you," said the undertaker, "I want to know if you have had experience in this business?" "Well, I never drove a hearse," admitted the applicant, "but I've drove the next thing to it, and I guess I can give you satisfaction."

"How do you mean? I don't understand," and it was evident from the undertaker's troubled look that he was speaking the truth.

"Why," said the applicant with confidence, "I drove a rapid delivery wagon in Philadelphia for seven years."

He got the job.—N. Y. Sun.

A GENEROUS OFFER BY DR. W. H. PALMER

LOCAL PHYSICIANS MAY USE
THE NEW HOSPITAL.

Proposition Made at a Meeting of the Medical Men Held Sunday Afternoon—Matter now in the Hands of a Committee—Much Hinges on the Opening of Oak Lawn.

Janesville physicians held an important meeting Sunday afternoon in Dr. W. H. Palmer's office, the gathering being at the invitation of Dr. Palmer and for the purpose of listening to and considering a proposition relating to opening the Palmer Hospital on Madison avenue. Dr. Palmer made a very generous proposition to the local physicians which was received very kindly and will undoubtedly be accepted unless the Oak Lawn hospital is opened at once.

As was well known, Dr. Henry Palmer recently purchased the handsome residence property of D. P. Smith, on Madison avenue, and was being enlarged and remodeled for a hospital, and was nearing completion when Dr. Palmer suddenly died. Now Dr. W. H. Palmer desires to complete the work, and dedicate the hospital, as originally intended by his father, and will do so in case the local physicians will give him their aid. It was for the purpose of ascertaining the opinions of the physicians of the city that Dr. Palmer invited them to assemble.

Dr. Palmer's Idea.

All but four were present, and they looked favorably towards the proposition submitted by the doctor, which, briefly stated was that he would go ahead and complete the hospital as originally intended by his father; that he would furnish the same in first class manner, making it as complete as any hospital in the country; that when so completed he would throw it open to all the local physicians, each one being on an equal footing, and at liberty to take their patients there for treatment and care; that a regular staff would be organized among the local physicians, giving each a special charge, that all might work together in harmony and for the good of the hospital.

Some of the physicians however, had pledged themselves to assist Oak Lawn hospital, and were thus prevented from speaking definitely, consequently nothing was done toward accepting the proposition.

Committee Was Appointed.

Drs. J. B. Whiting, James Gibson and James Mills were appointed a committee to confer with the trustees of Oak Lawn hospital, and if possible, ascertain what they intended to do toward opening that hospital. This committee was instructed to report at an adjourned meeting to be held on Wednesday evening, in Dr. Palmer's office.

"If the Oak Lawn trustees fail to open their hospital immediately, I think every physician in the city will vote to accept Dr. Palmer's proposition, which to say the least is very generous, and one which every physician will be glad to avail himself of," remarked one of the physicians in speaking of the matter this morning.

A meeting of the directors of Oak Lawn hospital was held at the office of George L. Carrington Saturday night, but no definite plans looking toward the opening of that institution were perfected.

Always Right.

Obstructions on the Highways

Are sometimes allowed by the authorities to remain too long, but when that important outlet to the refuse and debris of the system—the bowels—become obstructed, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters promptly "raises the blockade." This it does, too, without creating any abdominal disturbance in the way of griping, an unpleasantness always produced by a drastic purgative. No permanent, decisive relief from constipation can be obtained through the agency of a violent cathartic. Mandrakes, blue pills, salts and senna and calomel, while they evacuate the intestine, weaken and partly unfit it for future usefulness. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, on the contrary, invigorates the whole abdominal region and promotes a regular secretion and flow of bile. Use this time honored remedy also in malaria, dyspepsia, rheumatism, nervousness, in cases of debility, and for kidney trouble. It cures both appetite and sleep.

Narcoti-Cure

CURES THE TOBACCO HABIT
IN 4 TO 10 DAYS
OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Use All the Tobacco You Want Till Your "Craving" is Gone.

Narcoti-Cure is the only remedy in the world that acts directly on the nerves and drives the nicotine from the system in four to ten days. It leaves the patient in better health than before taking, and is warranted free from all injurious ingredients.

Narcoti-Cure is popular because it allows the patient to use all the tobacco he wants while under treatment, or until the "craving" and "hankering" are gone. It is then no sacrifice to throw away tobacco forever.

Narcoti-Cure is sold at the uniform price of $5 a bottle, and one bottle cures.

Money refunded if a cure is not effected when taken according to directions.

Gentlemen:—Replying to yours of the 1st would say that I have used tobacco for 46 years and of late have consumed a 10 cent plug a day, besides smoking considerably. I commenced to use tobacco when I was only 11 years old, and have never been able to give up the habit until I took Narcoti-Cure, although I have tried other so-called remedies without effect. After using your remedy four days all "hankering" for chewing disappeared, and in four days more smoking became unpleasant. I have no further desire for the weed, and experienced no bad effects, whatever. I am gaining flesh, and feel better than I have for a long time. To all who wish to be free from the tobacco habit I would say use Narcoti-Cure.

Yours truly, W. N. WAITE.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

1582—James Crichton, the famous scholar and gentleman (The Admirable), was assassinated at Mantua, Italy, aged 22.
1725—The Comte de Rochambeau (Ro-sham-bo), French general, America, born; died 1807. Rochambeau was the son of a governor of Vendome. Entering the army at 17, he won promotion by his gallantry and soldierly abilities. For leading his regiment in an assault at Minore he was knighted and commissioned brigadier general. In 1780 Rochambeau reached America with 6,000 French allies for the Revolutionary army. The column landed at Rhode Island and by the skill of its leader crossed the country to New Jersey, defeating the British plans for the maneuver. At Yorktown the valiant Frenchman led a decisive assault.
1860—Gottlieb Heinrich von Schubert, philosopher, died near Munich; born 1780.
1863—Battle of Gettysburg begun.
1867—Thomas Francis Meagher, Irish patriot and American soldier, while governor of Montana fell from a steamer on the Mississippi and was drowned; born 1823.
1892—The great lockout of 3,800 men at Homestead, Pa., began.

ONLY A YARDSTICK

There would be none of this costly blundering and strife about money had not somebody raked up the hoary assumption that the quantity of gold in use determines the price of commodities. How false this is can be understood by anyone who examines the other reasons for falling prices. The cost in human labor of producing and transporting commodities has been so vastly reduced that every day's work ought to be worth more bushels, pounds or yards. Gold has nothing to do with it, and serves only as a yardstick. Whether there are 5000 yardsticks at hand or only one, 3 feet of cloth measures just the same.

The piece of paper or of silver that men readily accept in place of gold represents the same buying power that the gold itself represents. It may be a private check, it may be an accepted draft, it may be a letter of credit; all that anybody wants is the buying power, which the gold represents often less safely or conveniently. What fixes prices is not the quantity of gold anywhere, but the buying power, of which part is represented by the check or letter. Ancient theories are blotted out by the enormous development of currency, banking and credit systems, by which the volume of money available at any ordinary time has been made practically unlimited. The revolution in modes of doing business, if it has not altered the very nature of transactions, has at least disclosed to us that all unexpended wealth forms the buying power by which prices of commodities are determined, and not that fraction of it which may happen to be embodied in any form of money. A piece of New York Central, a fraction of an iron mine or cotton mill can be used just as well as gold to buy a thousand bushels of wheat. No man who was in possession of a marketable commodity ever suffered for lack of "a larger circulating medium" when he sought to effect a change.

Senator Gorman still bosses Maryland in true Croker fashion. Widespread disaffection among democrats is the result. Gorman is making Gibson's fight his own this summer and there are plenty of democrats who say rather than assist in such an coalition they will vote the republican ticket. They realize that the only way to end Gorman's corrupt sway is to join with republicans. So general is the determination to bring about a change that even Governor Brown sees democrats have little chance and refuses to take any hand in the campaign. If Maryland can be freed from Gormanism there will be rejoicing deep and sincere in the terrapin commonwealth.

With a revival of business in the east comes a boom in the Gogebic iron region. It needs only a partial return of prosperity to the iron ranges north of us to make a great difference in Janesville trade. Shrewd business men are already working on the assumption that this fall's business will be the heaviest in years.

Richard Croker feels that the purification of New York politics is not being accomplished fast enough and is coming home to take a hand.

Green Bay poses as a summer resort on the strength of having a sea serpent and a haunted house.

Monsoon The Fashionable Tea.
The following is what C. H. Slack (one of the leading retail grocers of Chicago) has to say about Monsoon Tea:

India and Ceylon Teas now appear to be "the rage" in New York, and the better classes here have also adopted them almost exclusively for state occasions and afternoon teas. For some years the English people have used nothing else, but the prices they are willing to pay rendered it difficult for any other nation to procure them at salable figures. Within the last year or two, however, the industry of tea growing has increased so rapidly that they have had to look for new fields and are now bent on capturing America.

The "Monsoon" brand is the tea that has been selected to do this—and from the wonderful reception it has received in the short time it has been on the market, there is little doubt but that Americans will soon be very large consumers of India and Ceylon teas.

The "Monsoon" is packed only in 1 and 1-lb lead foil packages, each bearing the name of Sprague, Warner & Co., sole agents for America.

Rothschild's Retort.

A writer in Munsey's Magazine tells of a sharp and well-deserved retort uttered by one of the Rothschilds:

At a reception in Paris a traveler, who was a strong "Anti-Semitic" was talking to Rothschild on the beauties of the island of Tahiti, and sarcastically remarked:

"There are neither hogs nor Jews there!"

"Indeed!" retorted Rothschild. "Then you and I should go there together! We should be great curiosities."

FIRE LOSS UNPAID AND SUIT BEGUN

A. W. ALLISON WANTS HIS INSURANCE MONEY.

Two of the Fire Companies That Wrote Policies on His Furniture Factory Settled, But the Other Three Refuse To Pay, and a Legal Fight Follows—City News.

The refusal of three of the insurance companies who wrote policies on the stock of A. W. Allison, whose furniture factory was burned on February 28, has resulted in Mr. Allison's beginning suit to recover. Mr. Allison's insurance was written in five companies, two policies covering the building and the other three the contents. The two companies having risks on the building, the State of Pennsylvania, and the Teutonia of New Orleans settled his claim within five days, paying Allison $1500 on the building and $362 on some stock. The claims against the other three companies now aggregate $2900. Soon after the fire Mr. Allison says five adjusters, representing the companies that did not pay, came to Janesville, and after examination declared that they would not pay a cent. Later they offered him $1500 and again $1625, both of which offers were declined, as the appraisers, C. E. Church and O. W. Bemis had placed the valuation of the stock at $2164.98 and the inventory taken last January, footed up $2,600. Through his attorneys, Smith & Pierce, Mr. Allison last Friday served a summons on "The Greenwich" company and today began proceedings against the "Union," while his course in the case of the third company, is not fully decided upon.

LONG TRIP TAKEN BY O. SUTHERLAND

ALDERMAN NOW HOLDS THE WHEELMAN'S BELT.

Rode to Chicago Yesterday, His Cyclometer Registering 113 Miles When He Reached Clark and Madison Streets—Len Johnson and Charles Hodson Make a "Century."

Alderman Orion Sutherland broke all the bicycle records yesterday and took the longest trip made by a Janesville rider this season—from the Bower City to Chicago. He left Janesville at 8:30 o'clock in the morning and wheeled to Darien, where he took a five-minute rest and pushed on towards the World's Fair City, via Harvard, Woodstock, Crystal Lake, Barrington and Palatine. At Palatine, a rest of sixty-five minutes was taken, after which he again mounted his wheel. When Jefferson park was reached he had good roads all the way. The Milwaukee kee Avenue pavement was selected as the route into the city, and an electric car acted as a pacemaker. Alderman Sutherland's cyclometer registered 113 miles, when he arrived at the corner of Clark and Madison streets at 4:30 p. m., and the midnight train brought him back home.

Made a Century Run.

When Len Johnson and Charles Hodson started out Saturday evening, they did not figure on making a "century run." The pedaled to Johnston where they remained all night, and at five o'clock Sunday morning struck out for Lake Geneva, where they spent the day visiting the different camps, and on their return home at 9 p. m., their cyclometers registered one hundred miles.

Beautiful Lauderdale lake was selected by B. L. Watt and Ned Whitton, Jr. as their objective point. They left yesterday morning at 6:15 o'clock, the route via Johnston being selected. The entire distance of thirty-two miles was made in two hours and twenty-five minutes. They spent the day at the lake, returning home in the evening, their cyclometers registering seventy miles as the day's work.

Spent Sunday in Milwaukee.

Frank H. Jackman and C. W. Bliss left Saturday evening at 6:45 o'clock bound for Whitewater, a distance of twenty miles, which was made in an hour and 45 minutes. After spending the night in that city they were joined by Dwight Coe of that city, and left at 5 o'clock Sunday morning bound for the Cream City. Waukesha, a distance of thirty miles, was reached by 9 o'clock, where the trio got breakfast. Leaving Waukesha at 11 o'clock they reached Milwaukee at 12:45 which is considered good riding, the only mishap of the whole trip, being the puncturing of Mr. Coe's tire, while nine miles out of Milwaukee, but the break was soon repaired. They returned home last evening on the train.

WHEEL NEWS IN A LINE.

A match race for $25.00 a side has been talked of for some time past by friends of G. O. Ford and W. M. Pfennig but no definite arrangement has been made. It will probably take place at the race track and will be two in three, mile heats, with fifteen minutes between heats. Frank Van Wort of Beloit will act as starter.

WILLIAM THOMAS, of Minneapolis, arrived in the city last evening on his wheel. He claimed he left Madison at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, arriving here at 8:30, being a distance of forty miles. He stayed in the city over night, and left this morning for Chicago, on his way to Cleveland, Ohio.

Two well-known lawyers are forming a pool to raise $100 that will provide for W. M. Pfennig cannot beat E. F. Carpenter's trotter, Dan Phallmont, in a continuous five mile race, to take place at the fair grounds sometime in the near future.

THE course for the bicycle race to be given at the Traveling Men's picnic, will be from the start on Milwaukee street, at the corner of River street east on Milwaukee street to Milton avenue, east on Milton avenue to the Milwaukee road, and from there to Crystal Springs.

THE first annual road race to be given by the Traveling Men's Association will be held under the auspices of the Arrow Cycling Club, Saturday, July 6, rain or shine, the entrance fee being fifty cents.

GLENN DELONG has been selected as the starter and handicapper for the races on both July 4, and 6.

FRED CAPELLE and Harry Ranous started out to make a "century" yesterday, but when near the city of Oconomowoc Capelle's tire became punctured which put a stop to all their plans.

JOHN GATELEY Jr., the thirteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gateley is getting to be an expert on the wheel, he riding five miles at the fair grounds in twenty one minutes.

MISS NELLIE BLAKELEY ran into a buggy on South Main street Saturday evening, which resulted in her being being shaken up, and the breaking of her wheel.

NUMEROUS cyclists visited the race track yesterday morning and a "brush" between a crack trotter and a bike was one of the features.

CAPTAIN GRIFFITHS of Mayflower park has had a force of men clearing the road of stones in that vicinity, for the races on the Fourth.

MR. and Mrs. J. D. Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Tanberg spent the day upon the shores of Clear Lake, returning in the evening.

THE paved portion of South Main street still seems to be the favorite cycle path, the street being well occupied these fine evenings.

A good sized crowd was at the race track yesterday to see if W. M. Pfennig could break his record of 2:32, but he failed to do it.

HARRY JOHNSON left this morning on his wheel for a trip to Johnston, and Delavan and Geneva Lakes.

GOLD and silver medals are to be given Saturday, by the Traveling Men's Association.

CHARLES ELLIS and Roy Wisner rode to Clear Lake yesterday, returning in the evening.

THE GIRLS COULDN'T PLAY BALL

Golden Eagles Defeat the "Boston Bloomers" With Ease Yesterday.

A large crowd, in fact the largest of the season, assembled at Athletic Park yesterday afternoon, to witness the game of base ball between the "Boston Bloomer Female Club" and the Golden Eagles of this city. The large crowd present must have been attracted by the girls, for very little effort was needed on the part of the Janesville boys to outplay them at every point. The two best players in the club were their pitcher and the lady on first base, while the catcher was of masculine gender. Henry Baldwin umpired the game in a satisfactory manner and the score was 13 to 6. The clubs were as follows:

THIEVES GET $1,000 AT EDGERTON.

Perry & Doty's General Store Looted of That Amount of Goods.

Burglars pushed in the front door of Perry & Doty's Edgerton store last night and took away merchandise that Janesville police are told would aggregate $100 in value. They looted the ribbon and lace show cases; robbed a show window of dress goods; appropriated a suit of clothes that had been wrapped up for a customer; took several pairs of extra trousers and several pairs of shoes, after which they made their escape. Two or three neckties were found in the stock yards, this morning, which led to the supposition that the burglars packed up their booty at this point and then took the first freight train out of the city.

BEN DIXON MAKES HIS ESCAPE

Filed the Bail-and-Chain Fastening While at Work on the Wood Pile.

Benjamin Dixon who was sent to jail for robbing H. Lund's tailor shop a short time ago, made his escape this afternoon, while working on G. A. Shurtleff's wood pile across the road from the jail. A fifty pound ball and chain ornamented his leg, but in some manner he obtained a file and cut the chain in two. The police were at once notified and a diligent search of the city was made, but so far failed to furnish a clue as to his present whereabouts.

NO DIVORCE FOR JACOB SPRINGER

Beloit Woman Did Not Use Her Husband Cruelly, as Charged.

Jacob Springer, of Beloit, did not get a judgment of divorce from his wife Julia Springer, on the ground of the cruel treatment with which he charged her. When he took the witness stand before Judge Bennett, his testimony failed to convince the judge that Julia had treated him cruelly, and the case was accordingly dismissed. Attorney Silas Menzie appeared for the defendant, and Attorney George B. Ingersoll for the plaintiff.

CLINTON PREACHER IS IN JAIL

This One, However, Was Not Ordained, But Just Drunk.

Clinton people are a trifle exacting in the matter of preaching, and that is why Frank Carey was brought up from that town by Marshal George W. Earle. The officer stated that Carey, while drunk, was preaching and singing upon the public streets, much to the disgust of church goers, so they looked him up, and he was given ten days in jail by a justice of the peace.

CALVIN AND WESLEY DIED TOO LONG AGO

REV. V. E. SOUTHWORTH ASKS FOR FRESHER THOUGHTS.

Jesus Held To Be a Radical; a Radical Whom Conservatives Persecuted—Fourth of July Sermons in Local Churches—Officers For a Sunday School—Boys Brigade.

"That great radical of Nazareth, Jesus son of Joseph—that radiant radical who had to suffer the persecutions of those who insisted that they and they alone were right."

So ran the introduction to Rev. Victor Southworth's sermon in All Souls church Sunday morning. It was Mr. Southworth's discourse before his vacation which will continue until August 1. He took for his theme "The Reasonableness and Unreasonableness of Radicalism" and pointed out that true radicalism is not a contradiction but is an essential complement of true conservatism. Well regulated life was impossible, he insisted, where either conservatism or liberalism predominated.

"Let us be careful, friends," said he, in this connection, "The declared conservatives are tending toward fossilization but we pronounced radicals must beware that we are not in danger of spontaneous combustion."

The Modern Radical.

The speaker summed up genuine radicalism in the one word "thorough-going." It did not mean revolutionary; it meant "getting at the root." Turning to the influence of radicalism in religion Mr. Southworth arraigned the men who think it better to be bad within their particular church than to be good outside it.

"I have no quarrel with John Knox, John Calvin or John Wesley," he said. "No Presbyterian or Methodist will speak stronger, braver words in their praise than I. For their time they were advanced radicals. In their days these men's thoughts were fresh and good enough. But the last of them has been dead two hundred years. Has the world made no progress since then? Is the world to lie dead because Knox and Wesley are dead?"

Evil in the Human Tongue

A potent instrument for evil is the human tongue, Rev. Mr. Halsey declared in his sermon on "Some Social Failings" last evening. Abuse, slander, exaggeration and lying were each treated in turn. Even the conventional "white lie" of society was not excused. Regeneration of the heart was pointed out as the only cure. Given a clean heart and the tongue would speak nothing but God's praise. Temper was also touched upon in the course of the sermon. Temper was a good thing, Mr. Halsey said, and he wanted nothing to do with people who lacked it. To make temper a blessing it must be kept under control. Thus subdued it became a power for good.

Officers In A Sunday School.

Court Street M. E. Sunday School elected Richard Hetherington as superintendent for the coming year at the annual meeting yesterday afternoon. The full list of officers follows: Superintendent—R. Hetherington. Asst. Superintendent—H. G. Arnold. Lady Sup't.—Miss Nellie Carle. Secretary—Frank Hogboom. Treasurer—Dr. E. E. Loomis. Librarian—J. L. Hay.

Asst. Librarian—Marion Spencer.

Mr. Halsey is rapidly recovering from his recent illness and his old time vigor is almost unimpaired. He still spares himself by depending somewhat upon notes but expects to be able to discard even this aid in a few weeks.

Baptists Heard Miss Jones Sing.

Miss Margaret Jones, who has been studying music in Oberlin College, sang in the Baptist church yesterday. Her voice was a revelation even to her friends, being pure, powerful and of great range. Miss Jones is the daughter of Mrs. J. H. Jones of the School for the Blind and has much musical talent by right of inheritance.

Social For the Boys' Brigade.

The Boys' Brigade of the Presbyterian church, have planned a lawn social which will be given at the Mineral Point home of Mr. and Mrs. James Shearer tomorrow evening.

Fourth of July Sermons Planned.

Two or three Bower City pastors will have patriotic services next Sunday, to mark the Fourth of July. Rev. Mr. Halsey announces a Fourth of July sermon Sunday evening, on "Safe guards of Our Nation."

'ALL SOULS' The Peoples Church

OUR PRINCIPLES.

1. We believe in God, but not an extra-mundane, an extra human God, a mystical man-in-the-moon, the absent father of his abandoned children. We believe in the indwelling presence of All pervading Spirit. But God there and man here, but God in man and man in God inseparable and harmonious.

2. We believe in man, not in a sin cursed and devil-haunted race of fallen rebels, separated from God by an abyss of original inherited sin; but we believe in a constantly growing and ennobling race of free moral beings whose origin and destiny are divine.

Bright Colored Swings—Elbow Sleeves.
Nainsook Embroidery.

The hammock season has opened, and the picturesque, tropical looking nets are offered for sale in great variety. There are gayly colored ones of stout cotton cord, fringed and cushioned until they look like the housings of a knight's horse in the days of chivalry; delicate silk ones, more for ornament than use, and last and not least, but most suitable, grass nets in ochreous tints that suggest the dyes used by aboriginal Indians.

There are various modes of hanging a hammock, as well as various modes of falling out of it after it is hung. The most suitable arrangement of the unstable couch is said to be one which is to be 6 1/2 feet from the ground at the head and 3 1/2 feet above it at the foot. The rope at the head must be 1 foot long, that at the foot 4 feet. It is necessary to employ a footstool to mount into the hammock at this elevation, but the skirts are left free to swing picturesquely. An outfit of cushions and striped blankets is considered necessary for fashionable effect.

Lace heading is much used on nainsook and dimity gowns, run with narrow ribbon matching the figure printed on the goods. Elbow sleeves are an almost invariable feature of these gowns, which implies an impetus in the long glove trade.

Nainsook embroidery is curiously combined with silk and even wool goods this summer, which does not seem very appropriate except when the embroidery is in the shape of adjustable collars, cuffs and vests which may be changed at will.

Lacemaking is a favorite industry with Parisian ladies just now, and many elaborate designs are supplied to furnish them with a pretty pretense of fancy work. Napkin borders, doilies and traycloths in renaissance style vie with more delicate patterns intended for underwear and children's clothing.

Hats of bluet straw trimmed with blueets of various shades are still greatly liked in Paris, but are not much seen here. These solid colored hats are sometimes very effective, red straw trimmed with poppies or cherries being particularly pretty.

The hat illustrated is of black straw with a wide, undulating brim trimmed with moss green and black plumes held together at the left side by a large knot of black taffeta forming four coques confined with paste buttons. JUDIC CHOLLET.

FASHIONABLE FANCIES.

The Newest Thing in Veils—Rose Leaves For Drying.

It is a headgear year, a time when the hat or bonnet is the keynote and the dress supplies the harmonies. Dresses are still in subdued hues, although there is every prospect that soon they will blossom out into more bright and varied color.

Veils are now playing an important part among the accessories to the toilet of a woman of fashion. Double width net, either chenille spotted or in plain white or colors, is the fashionable style of veil, drawn in filmy folds under the chin and over the broad brim of the hat, and is more consistent with its name than the small strip drawn tightly over the eyes and nose that was formerly worn. Brown net with black chenille spots is the most recent idea.

The inside of the parasol or sunshade is the object of particular attention this year. Chiffon and lace are pressed into the service to make it beautiful, even the wires being hidden from view by soft shirrings, while the outside may be of plain satin or mother of pearl moire. This new idea is rather a good one, however, for it is the inside of the sunshade which makes a background for the head and shoulders and receives little wear, while the outside bears the brunt of service and has a far less close relation to the face. Large tassels are seen on parasol handles, while the handles themselves are of Dresden china or mother of pearl inlaid with gold or are in the likeness of birds, flowers or fruit. Sequins are also employed as a sunshade decoration.

Now is the time to gather rose petals in the garden, which, put in large jars with the flowers of the linden tree and leaves of mint, will serve to perfume the atmosphere of the house during the winter. The leaves and flowers should be dried quickly, in the shade, care being taken not to gather them when they are wet with dew.

An illustration is given of a gown for a girl 14 years old. It is of rose crepon trimmed with plaid silk. The bodice skirt has two bias bands of silk near the foot, while the blouse bodice is confined at the waist by a belt of the same goods. A high collar of batiste turns down over a four-hand tie of silk which extends to the waist. The elbow sleeve has two balloon puffs. The white straw hat is adorned with rose ribbon. JUDIC CHOLLET.

There Was Another Way.

A conjuror was recently performing the old trick of producing eggs from a pocket handkerchief, when he remarked to a little boy in fun:

"I say, my boy, your mother can't get eggs without hens, can she?"

"Of course she can," replied the boy.

"Why, how is that?" asked the conjuror.

"She keeps ducks," replied the boy, amid roars of laughter.—Richmond State.

The Difference.

Judge—How long has this difference between you and your wife existed?

O'Mally—Iver sence we was married, yer anner, only it's changed a throifle since thin.

Judge—What do you mean by saying the difference has changed?

O'Mally—At furest Oi cud lick hur, but sence Oi had the rheumatiz, wurra! she's the best man av the two.—Truth.

A Poser.

"Why," asked the philosopher, "why is it that a man—the noblest created object—why is it that a man should have doubts of his ability to win a woman's affection, when he considers the success in that line of a pop-eyed, pudding-shaped, pretzel-tailed pug dog?"

But the assembled listeners answered him not.—Toledo Blade.

Fishing Tackle.

The daughter was going over her father's fishing tackle, straightening it up for him to be ready for the spring campaign, when she came across a corkscrow.

"Why, mamma," she exclaimed, "what is this for?"

"Um!" sniffed mamma, "I guess that is a hook to catch bait with."—Detroit Free Press.

How He Gave Himself Away.

Mrs. Oldboy—On account of the house-cleaning Mrs. Newed learned two things about her husband—that he came in late, and that he is a profane sweaver.

Mrs. Nabor—Why on account of the house-cleaning?

Mrs. Oldboy—He took off his shoes to steal upstairs and ran into an ambulance of neglected tacks.—Puck.

A Prudent Man.

Old Gentleman (to car driver)—My friend, what do you do with your wages every week—put part of it in the savings bank?

Driver—No, sir. After payin' the butcher an' grocer, an' rent, I pack away what's left in barrels. I'm afraid of them savin' banks.—Texas Siftings.

Way Up.

Fond Wife—I want you to get Ethel and myself some of those twenty-four-button gloves.

Loving Husband—I cannot do it, dear. They are very expensive.

Fond Wife—I know it, darling. They come high, but we must have them.—N. Y. World.

A Careful Criticism.

Cawker—You have seen Mrs. John Smith Shotter play "Desdemona," haven't you?

Cumso—Yes.

Cawker—What did you think of her in the death scene?

Cumso—She made the most life-like corpse I ever saw on the stage.—Judge.

Verified.

He will be heard from in this world, The mother proudly said.

He was. He mowed the lawn each morn Ere folks were out of bed.

—Washington Star.

TOO SMALL TO DIVIDE.

Johnnie (surveying his small piece of pie)—I'm blame glad I'm not twins.

Mamma—Why?

Johnnie—'Cause there's not enough pie even for half a twin.—Judge.

Where the Charge Lay.

Roundsman (reporting at the station 3 a. m.)—I just found Officer Murphy runk in O'Hara's saloon, sir.

Sergeant (indignantly)—Go back at see and arrest that villain O'Hara for olating the excise law.—Puck.

One or the Other.

First Boy—I've got two packs of fire-ackers left over from last Fourth.

Second Boy—What was the matter—in or hospital?—Good News.

A Vacuum.

She—Van Poser is so empty, don't you ink?

He—He seems very full of himself.

She—That's what I mean.—Puck.

Had His Carriage.

Butler—I may be poor, but there was time when I rode in a carriage.

Cook—Yes, and your mother pushed.—N. Y. Herald.

Love on the Bike.

A sighed: "Give me my answer now."

She said: "Kind sir, my heart is mine."

At when she spied that brindle cow ith crumpled horn and horrid low

She gasped: "Dear George, I'm thine!"—Judge.

Would Take No Chances.

Shall I return his presents?"

No. He might be mean enough to ept them.—Life.

Right You Are.

REVENGE IS SWEET.

And Especially to the Writer Whose "Copy" Has Been Rejected.

I was just wondering which was the easier way to rest my head—by pressing my ear against the window casing, or by hunching down into the form of the letter "Z," with my knees pressed firmly into the back of an innocent old party from South Greece, and allowing my hump of conjugal love to rest fondly on the row of brass headed tacks along the seat back—when a young man boarded the train at Adam's Basin and dropped into the place beside me. He was a good looking young man, and somehow I fancied him one of the sort who dashes off little gems on one side of the paper only, with the very best ink and in a legible hand, and then wonders why he is not more successful in literature. He evidently had stopped in the postoffice on his way to the train to get "the returns," and, from the number of bulky envelopes in his hands, he plainly had received quite a lot. For a long time he sat with a near-by look in his eyes, and then he began, one by one, to shuck the manuscripts. There was a little printed form in every envelope, and the count of titles didn't seem to fall short any. Not a solitary manuscript had stuck. I felt sorry for him. He sat there kind of sadlike, when suddenly the newsboy came through yelling: "Thi' smonth's mag's, here—Censhry, Hoppers, Scrib., Cosmo, 'Tlantic, or—' He paused beside my literary seatmate to display his wares. And then a transformation took place. Shoving his hat back on his head, the spirit of revenge flashing from his eyes, the young writer exclaimed, in tones of most cutting sarcasm: "Thank you for the kind offer of the publications you name, but regret to say that I must respectfully decline them. Rejection does not necessarily indicate a lack of merit, however, and you may be successful elsewhere. A variety of reasons may make it impossible for me to make use of them at this time." And then the young man sank back with a smile of triumph, and the newsboy, with a stare, remarked, "Whach'er givin' us?" and passed on. He didn't understand it, but I did. I am an author, too.

In the Account.

Hotel Clerk—That Mr. Wayback, in room 979, blew out the gas last night, and is dead. What shall I do?

Proprietor (busily)—Charge his estate twenty dollars for extra gas.—N. Y. Weekly.

An Eleven-Year-Old Friend.
Columbus, Ga., July 1.—Information received from Harris county states that Henry Thomas, an 11-year-old negro boy, had killed his second victim. He was hired by his uncle, Jasper Thomas, to care for a child about a year old while the father and mother were in the field working. Henry grew tired of acting as nurse and took his uncle's pistol while his uncle and aunt were in the field and shot the child dead. Henry then laid it on the bed and fled to the woods. He has not been seen since. This is the second child he has killed.

New Army Regulations.
Washington, July 1.—The army regulations which have been revised by Assistant Secretary of War Doe have been subjected to critical examination by the different officers of the war department who are familiar with the various duties pertaining to the army. Mr. Doe has invited the most competent criticism and suggestions, it being his desire to make the regulations all that the army needs for its government. The regulations will be promulgated in a short time.

Settlers Not to Resist.
Pender, Neb., July 1.—The show-down in reference to settlers on the reservation giving up their homes must come to-day. Early in the day sixty Indian police, armed with Winchesters and revolvers, left to force all settlers from the Indian lands who have not made their peace with Capt. Beck. It is hardly likely any blood will be shed, as the settlers now realize they must obey Beck and will leave peaceably.
